Thank you for your interest in the Turnitin Common Core State Standards-aligned writing rubrics. We hope you find them useful.

The three rubrics in this package were developed in conjunction with the English Professional Learning Council (EPLC) and include argument, informative and narrative rubrics.

Background

When approached by Turnitin in May of 2012, the EPLC had already been looking at ways in which curricula could be aligned across secondary and higher education writing courses to address the skills gap that exists for many students matriculating in post secondary programs. The EPLC agreed to assist Turnitin with developing CCSS-aligned rubrics to help secondary educators implement the Standards, support student success in writing, and align instructor expectations between secondary and higher education.

Turnitin's CCSS-Aligned Writing Rubrics

While developed specifically for secondary instruction, these rubrics are also ideal for preparing students for more rigorous coursework in upper-level post-secondary writing courses and courses that involve writing across the curriculum. Additionally, members of the EPLC and Turnitin agree that expectations and language—especially for assessment—be common between secondary and higher education to increase student success in writing as their education progresses.

Turnitin users at secondary schools and community colleges across the U.S. can attach a CCSS-aligned rubric to any GradeMark assignment to quickly and easily convey their expectations to students, grade submitted work against the CCSS, provide critical feedback, and track student progress. If you are a Turnitin user at a 4-year college/university or are not located in the U.S., you will need to upload an .rbc file of the rubrics into GradeMark:
